

Applications Open for World's Largest Sustainability Training Program: UPG Sustainability Leadership Class of 2024

Applications Open for World's Largest Sustainability Training. 100% scholarship and Travel to USA. Deadline 31 December 2024

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, November 19, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- United People Global (UPG), a leading global organisation dedicated to sustainability is receiving applications for the UPG Sustainability Leadership Class of 2024. The programme provides 100% scholarship to the most motivated young leaders passionate about building a more sustainable world in any of a wide-range of disciplines. The intensive programme is the world's largest training on sustainability leadership. Among the special highlights include an exclusive trip to the USA for an additional one-week training on an island. The deadline to apply is 31 December 2023.

Building on the incredible success of the Class of 2023, which certified over 550 aspiring sustainability leaders from 101 countries and sent more than 90 of them for a transformative one-week immersive training at the Hurricane Island Centre for Science and Leadership, UPG continues to empower individuals and organisations to drive positive action for sustainability.

UPG Sustainability Leadership is a movement that mobilises individuals and organisations to support positive citizen leadership on sustainability. This is developed in harmony with the framework provided by the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations. The flagship activity is a free programme that trains young leaders to become ambassadors and warriors for a better world. It includes an intensive 9-week training programme, year-long support and a pilgrimage to Hurricane Island in the USA. All of this is free. First, applicants need to do enough to be chosen for the program and it is all about demonstrating motivation. The training programme is run in close collaboration with the Hurricane Island Center for Science
