POMPANO BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, October 23, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Ace Cloud, a leading cloud service provider, has been listed by Gartner, a distinguished global research and advisory firm, in its recent report titled "Market Guide For Specialty Cloud Providers" for 2023. The report acknowledges Ace Cloud as a trusted cloud provider in North America, augmenting its dedication to deliver excellence in cloud services.

This is a testament to our dedication to providing top-tier cloud services and our commitment to helping clients harness the full potential of cloud technology.”

Vinay Chhabra, CEO at Ace Cloud

Many smaller cloud providers are thriving in the market by focusing on customer challenges that the hyperscalers don't fully address. The market guide research reviews the market for specialty cloud infrastructure and platform services and offers guidance to I&O leaders on when to consider specialty providers.

Gartner's recognition of Ace Cloud in "Market Guide For Specialty Cloud Providers" for 2023 highlights the company's expertise and reliability in delivering top-notch cloud solutions and its proficiency in handling cloud workloads as per local requirements.

In response to this recognition, Mr. Vinay Chhabra, the CEO at Ace Cloud, stated, "We are thrilled to be listed by Gartner as a trusted cloud provider in North America. This is a testament to our dedication to providing top-tier cloud services and our commitment to helping clients harness the full potential of cloud technology."

Ace Cloud continues to experience significant growth, supporting a diverse range of clients globally. The company's cloud services empower businesses to operate more efficiently and achieve transformative results in the cloud.
