“It’s an honor to be inducted into this prestigious club,” said Curran. “I fondly remember my time in high school and will forever be proud to wear the Brookwood jersey. Now, I find the same exhilarating feeling by helping others through the Game Changers Foundation which I began following my playing days in the NFL.”

Curran’s three-year career at the University of Georgia was nothing short of spectacular, where he recorded two first-team All-American titles and two first-team All-SEC. Following his junior year he went on to play in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans. During his rookie season, Curran played in nine games and recorded eight total tackles. In May of 2017 Curran decided to retire from the game of football and focus his efforts on using his gifts, talents, and experiences to mentor the younger generation of athletes.
