About Growing Minds Child Care: Growing Minds Child Care is the brainchild of owners Anthony Feoli, Kurt Dyer, and Carlos Sanchez. With a shared vision of cultivating curiosity and inspiring growth, these entrepreneurs have transformed the former "Little Crayons" into a beacon of quality childcare in the community. Serving children aged 1 to 5, the center offers free Voluntary Prekindergarten (VPK) and is deeply committed to its core values of Dedication, Safety, and Learning. Notably, among the trio of owners, there is a personal touch, with one being a father, underscoring the genuine care and understanding they bring to the institution.

The Growing Minds Child Care team looks forward to welcoming attendees and sharing their passion for quality childcare with the community.
