nourishing their babies. Comfort and style boost self-esteem, which in turn, enriches the breastfeeding experience. Style with ease of nursing access, modern maternity wear like Erro's nursing sweatshirts strike a perfect balance, encouraging a positive breastfeeding journey while allowing mothers to flaunt their personal style.

As Madison H, an Erro customer comments: " The material is so soft and it's lightweight but still warm. Fits well with a bump and I imagine the cut will work really well after pregnancy too. Zippers seem large enough and in a good location for nursing. It will be hard to wear anything else in my closet!"
