

Filming segments for the docuseries "No Way to Live" at the Waterbury Interfaith Ministries location (WHIM)

"Filming for 'No Way to Live' at WHIM, Waterbury, CT. A series on Connecticut's homeless. Watch at productionsforchange.org."

BRISTOL, CT, UNITED STATES, October 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The groundbreaking documentary series, "No Way to Live: Rummaging Through Connecticut's Homeless Mess for Answers," has recently launched, offering a profound exploration into the lives and narratives of homeless individuals in Connecticut. With an aim to illuminate the human stories behind the issue of homelessness, this series serves as a powerful medium for fostering empathy and understanding within our communities.

Waterbury homeless man decides to live off the grid.

“

Tom Mazarella, President of Productions for Change, "No Way to Live": "It can ignite dialogue and action on homelessness, nurturing empathy and awareness."

Thomas Mazarella

Scheduled for October 30 in Waterbury, the production team will be filming additional segments for the docuseries at the [Waterbury Interfaith Ministries location \(WHIM\)](http://Waterbury Interfaith Ministries location (WHIM)). This event presents a unique opportunity for news crews to capture the inspiring endeavors of the community in assisting the homeless.

You can view the first four videos at productionsforchange.org.

Having devoted ourselves to this crucial initiative since December last year, we have conducted in-depth interviews with over 24 homeless individuals and collaborated with 17 agencies. The culmination of this effort will be the premiere of the full 90-minute documentary at our nonprofit's fundraising event on March 2, offering the public an immersive understanding of the complexities surrounding homelessness. Furthermore, the docuseries is readily accessible on our YouTube channel and website, productionsforchange.org.

"We believe that 'No Way to Live' has the potential to spark meaningful conversations and drive action on the critical issue of homelessness," remarked Tom Mazzearella, President of Productions for Change. "Through the lens of these personal stories, we hope to foster greater awareness and compassion in addressing the challenges faced by the homeless community in Connecticut."

For additional information or to delve deeper into the intricate aspects of this project, please do not hesitate to reach out. We welcome the opportunity to collaborate with you to shed light on this pressing societal concern and foster a deeper understanding within our communities.

For media inquiries or further information, please contact Tom Mazzearella at tom@productionsforchange.org or 860-940-9838.

To learn more about our mission and view the docuseries, please visit ProductionsforChange.org.

Thomas Mazzearella
Productions for Change
+1 860-940-9838

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Instagram

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/663321312>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2023 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.