The highlight of the Health, Wealth & Sales Summit is world renowned author, American "pioneer in television journalism" Les Brown. Born into abject poverty and adversity, former State Representative and PBS Commentator; Brown has achieved a great legacy. He insists, "I am just getting started! This is due in part to the strength of an indomitable mother and the guidance of a dedicated (and so often underappreciated) elementary school teacher". This 5th grade teacher dispelled any notion he was 'intellectually handicapped'. This accusation leveled at Les at an impressionable age could have spelled one more life wasted. "Mr. Brown is an inspiration to anyone who finds themselves within his sphere of influence," confirms this reporter, Cristiane Roget of VIPictures.com.

Les Brown is relentless in sharing "a message that discourages people from becoming complacent with mediocrity. People need not be paralyzed with fear, more prevalent than ever before. With the constant bombardment of salacious 'click bait', factoids and internet noise we forget to listen to our inner selves. We become content with our discontent. I want to be the catalyst to enable people in all paths to jump lanes and embrace their greatness within!"

Stoller in addition to Champion Mindset Speaker Academy & Media Company is the driver behind the East coast Tour that assure all an incomparable experience. "Ours is a comprehensive and fully integrated agenda. Find out how countless visionaries, entrepreneurs and startups have found abundance, new intentions, and business benefits from participating in Champion Mind Set Events. "Here lies a path for unbridled success. Here the weight of hopelessness and dread becomes mindful wellbeing," confirms A. Whitfield. Join like-minded individuals that are committed to being their best selves. "Our speakers generously share their knowledge with the world. Let's Go!", Stoller laughs, effervescent and unflappable as usual. Or as Les Brown is fond of saying, "You have greatness within you. Believe it and it will never fail you! "
