

The Eighth Annual Women Arise Conference at Charis Bible College Will Bring Women Together

Women from different generations and backgrounds are expected for the free, three-day conference

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, October 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Charis Bible College is again bringing women together from all over the U.S. and abroad for the eighth year.

At this three-day, free conference, women are encouraged to bring their friends, mothers, sisters, and daughters November 2–4, 2023, to rest and reset on the beautiful Charis campus tucked away in the City Above the Clouds, Woodland Park, Colorado.

This year's dynamic female speakers are Carrie Pickett, vice president and director of Charis Bible College; Audrey Mack, founder of GoTell Ministry; and Elizabeth Muren, Executive Director of Communication and director of Charis Bible College's Film and Production School. She and her husband, Robert have co-produced Broadway-level musicals and high-quality films to introduce audiences to biblical truths through the creative arts. In addition to the main sessions, there will be a panel
