3. Holo-Krome Products: MF Supply is proud to announce the inclusion of Holo-Krome brand fasteners in its catalog. Holo-Krome, a reputable domestic OEM, is well known for their extensive offering of quality products within the Socket Products family. MF Supply introduces the following Holo-Krome products available for purchase directly on their website: Dowel Pins, Hex Socket Shoulder Screws, Socket Cap Screws, Allenuts, Socket Jam Screws, Socket Pressure Plugs, and Socket Set Screws.

4. Thread Rolling / Thread Forming Screws: MF Supply has expanded their online offering to include alternatives to Plastite & Taptite Screws in Steel, Black Oxide and Stainless Steel. Their off the shelf products are ready to ship from multiple warehouses across the USA, and include:

- EJOT® PT®-Alternative, Metric
- Plas-Fix®45 and Plastite®-Alternate, Metric
- Plastite®-Alternative, Inch Sizes
- Taptite®-Alternative, Inch Sizes

By bolstering its product offering in these key areas, MF Supply aims to be the preferred supplier for manufacturers in various sectors, including: aerospace, OEMS of instrumentation, equipment and machines, architectural metal and glass, sheet metal fabrication, contract manufacturers, lighting, furniture, and elevators.

"At MF Supply, we understand the dynamic needs of the manufacturing industry, including the balance of price, quality, availability and certification paperwork. The expansion of our product catalog demonstrates our commitment to being a one-stop solution for all fastener needs. Whether it's standard fasteners, specialized custom hardware, mil-spec parts or OEM brand names like the trusted Holo-Krome brand, we have it all under one roof," said Robin Lieberman, President of MF Supply.

Manufacturers working with MF Supply can expect timely deliveries, competitive pricing, and access to expert guidance to help optimize their fastener choices.
