Hook & Barrel Magazine® features Johnny Joey Jones, FOX News contributor, Author, Former Marine, and outdoorsman, on the cover of its November / December 2023 issue as the publication triples distribution points across America.

The Story:

Hook & Barrel Magazine® is proud to release its November / December issue and its official national expansion into 60 additional points of distribution with the announcement of the FOX News contributor, Author, Former Marine, and outdoorsman, Johnny Joey Jones.

"I am beyond proud to have Joey on the cover", Founder and Editor-in-Chief, John J. Radzwilla says. "Not only is this a big issue for us given the planned expansion of our brand, but also it falls during the Veterans Day timeframe as well as of course, the holidays. I don't admit to crying much as a man, but the National Anthem gets me every time, and if not for men and women like Joey, who sacrificed so much for our great nation, we wouldn't be able to do what we do over here at Hook & Barrel Magazine®. Our military members protect the American Dream and myself, my family, and my team, are shining examples of exactly what that dream is – the freedom and ability to be anything we want to be in life, to earn an honest living of our choosing, in a nation that protects our rights to free speech as media and also in our case as outdoorsmen, our right to bear arms. They signed a blank check, up to and including their lives, so we can have those rights (and much more), and for that, we at Hook & Barrel Magazine®, are forever
