

Maggie's Restaurant in Westminster, MD Joins the Inaugural Maryland Crab Cake Festival

Maggie's Restaurant Celebrates Maryland's Culinary Heritage by Participating in the First-Ever Maryland Crab Cake Festival in Westminster.

WESTMINSTER, MD, UNITED STATES, October 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Westminster, MD – 10/23/2023 – Nestled in Maryland's heartland, a state renowned for its crab cakes, Maggie's Restaurant in Westminster confirms its role in the inaugural Maryland Crab Cake Festival. Here, they will present a crab cake recipe, perfected over 40 years.

Crab Cakes: A Signature Maryland Delicacy

Marylands Best Crab Cakes At Maggie's Restaurant

While dishes like Texas brisket and Louisiana gumbo hold special places in the US culinary scene, Maryland boasts of its iconic crab cake. For the state, the crab cake is more than food—it signifies identity and heritage. This adoration finds its roots in Maryland's history, where both indigenous populations and early settlers indulged in the blue crabs from the Chesapeake Bay.

Maggie's Restaurant has always strived to provide an authentic experience. We are excited for attendees of the festival to explore our rendition of this classic.”

Liz Haney

The contemporary landscape in Maryland has transformed the crab cake into a topic of lively conversation. Residents throughout the state discuss the ingredients, cooking methods, and family recipes that constitute the "perfect" crab cake.

Maggie's Restaurant: A Testament to Tradition

In the midst of these discussions, Maggie's Restaurant in Westminster, MD has maintained a consistent recipe that has won over patrons for decades. Their 10 oz crab cake is a testament to their commitment to maintaining a rich culinary tradition.

Thomas Zippelli, the owner of Maggie's Restaurant, said, "Our dedication lies in upholding the traditions that make Maryland crab cakes special. While there's always a debate on the best crab cake, we believe in the authenticity and consistency of our recipe."

As the Maryland Crab Cake Festival nears, Maggie's encourages both locals and tourists to try their version of the revered dish.

Liz Haney, Director of Marketing, adds, "Maggie's Restaurant has always strived to provide an authentic experience. We are excited for attendees of the festival to explore our rendition of this classic."
