The M. Dolores Denman Lady Justice Award, named to commemorate the late Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division, Fourth Department, Judge M. Dolores Denman, was founded in 2000. It celebrates individuals who have notably promoted the administration of justice, emphasizing its impact on women and minorities. Additionally, the award sheds light on actions that raise awareness about the disparities present in the justice system.

Congratulations to Anne E. Joynt for this well-deserved recognition. Her dedication, passion, and commitment to justice, equality, and community service inspire us all.
