Symposium, centered around Edward de Bono's Six Thinking Hats methodology. This symposium led to the creation of the White Book of the Robot Patent Drafting Symposium, a comprehensive resource containing insights, best practices, and information about Robot Patent Drafting manufacturers. The White Book is designed to be fully enabling, allowing attendees to start their robotic patent drafting journey immediately.

In addition, the Radical RPD Workshop, held in May 2023, provided attendees from law firms and corporations with a hands-on experience using a Patent Drafting Robot. This onsite event in Johor Bahru, Malaysia, also offered online participation for a global audience. The subsequent Radical RPD Workshop: EP-Style Edition, conducted online on September 2, 2023, gave attendees live demonstrations of various Patent Drafting Robots including PowerPatent software, further enhancing their skills and knowledge.

The upcoming Radical RPD Workshop on AI tools for Software Patenting is set to be the fourth event in this transformative series. Scheduled for November 3, 2023, it coincides with the Friday of APAA General Assembly 2023. Participants will have the opportunity to experience the patent drafting process using patent drafting robots and gain a unique insight into drafting software patents. PowerPatent will demo its flowchart generation capability and how a complete first draft application can be done in minutes using the claims or the invention disclosure.

"The ultimate goal of this workshop is to guide you to draft patent applications using patent drafting robots, fundamentally changing your professional life," added Martin Schweiger. "We promise that this event will be a game-changer for attendees, forever."
