"The Black Woman Awards symbolizes the unwavering spirit and brilliance of Black Women Business Owners. We're excited to celebrate their achievements and impact on their communities and the economy. This event is not just a recognition, but a call to action, urging the world to buy from, support and invest in Black Women Entrepreneurs," says Nikki Porcher, the founder of Buy From A Black Woman.

The business awards are being held in Orlando to show solidarity with Black Women Business Owners based in Florida who are facing hardships due to the current political and social climate.

“Historically oppressed groups can’t always up and leave when things get bad because they don’t have the resources to. So we’ll be supporting Black businesses as a part of the awards. And we invite local businesses and community members to join us in supporting each other and celebrating Black Women who embody excellence, resilience and leadership in their businesses,” Nikki adds.
