Son/Editor Rob Schwartz to speak about "The Wisdom of Morrie" by late father Morrie Schwartz ("Tuesdays with Morrie") on Thursday, Nov 2nd in Charleston, SC.

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, October 26, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In sync with Non-Fiction November, Son/Editor Rob Schwartz announces a Live Author Book Talk will be held on Thursday, November 2, 2023, 6:00-7:00 pm, at Buxton Books in Charleston, South Carolina, about his late father Morrie Schwartz's new book: "The Wisdom of Morrie - Living and Aging Creatively and Joyfully" (Blackstone Publishing, 2023). Morrie was a Sociology Professor at Brandeis University, who is best-known as the beloved subject of the top memoir "Tuesdays with Morrie" by his student Mitch Albom, which sold 18 million copies.

For this book talk, Charleston's Podcast Host Matt O'Neill ("The Good Mood Show") will interview Rob Schwartz about "The Wisdom of Morrie". When O'Neill recently interviewed Rob on his Top 5% Podcast, he reflected, "I've read 'The Wisdom of Morrie', and it is awesome.....I'm a huge fan of your father. His wisdom has had a huge influence on my life personally."

"The Wisdom of Morrie" has been described as "an insightful, poignant masterpiece on staying vibrant and connected for life" that asks readers to think about; "Who am I really? What have I done? What is important and meaningful to me? What difference does it make that I have lived?

What does it mean to be truly human, and where am I on that scale?"

During this book talk, Son/Editor Rob Schwartz will explain that his father wrote "The Wisdom of Morrie" between 1988-1992 after retiring from Brandeis University around age 70, and before he got ALS. Rob explains, "This book was forgotten. He had put it in a desk drawer. And years after his death, I rediscovered it,...and I thought wow, we should probably publish this after the success of 'Tuesdays with Morrie'."

When asked about how one person really impacted the success of "Tuesdays with Morrie", Rob explains, "'Tuesdays with Morrie' was really discovered by Oprah Winfrey. Oprah got so excited about it that she had Mitch on her show, put it on her 'Book of the Month Club', and then bought the rights to the TV movie that starred Jack Lemmon, Hank Azaria, and Wendy Moniz. The movie won an Emmy® Award, and was a mostly fictional."

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

MORRIE SCHWARTZ (Dec 1916- Nov 1995, passed from ALS at age 78), the beloved subject of the classic, multimillion-copy number one bestseller "Tuesdays with Morrie" by Mitch Albom, posthumously releases a new book with his Son/Editor Rob Schwartz called "The Wisdom of Morrie" (April 2023). In the book, Morrie explores life questions in a profound, poetic, and poignant masterpiece of living and aging joyfully and creatively. Later life can be filled with many challenges, but it can also be one of the most beautiful and rewarding passages in anyone's lifetime. In "The Wisdom of Morrie", the author draws on his experiences as a social psychologist, teacher, father, friend, and role model to offer us a road map to navigate our futures. He was a professor of Sociology and Social Psychology for 30+ years at Brandeis
