"I am so thankful for the incredible level of financial support our campaign has fostered so early on in this process. I am grateful to the over 50 individuals and organizations that have contributed, as it reflects strong enthusiasm for my vision for Delray Beach," Coppola said. "Our community is looking for fresh ideas and passionate leadership, and it's clear that our message is resonating."

Coppola's impressive fundraising prowess showcases his ability to build bridges across the community. His platform focuses on enhancing Delray's public safety and supporting its first responders, managing growth, especially downtown, preserving Delray Beach's unique character, protecting our water and environment and fostering transparency and fiscal responsibility in local government.

As a first-time candidate for office with years of city board experience, Nick Coppola is the best choice for Delray voters. Additionally, his background as a dedicated community leader and local small business owner has generated support from a wide spectrum of residents who appreciate his commitment to inclusivity and progress.

Election Day for Delray Beach City Commission, Seat 3, is Tuesday, March 19, 2024.
