The graphic features a row of seven portraits of mayors: Sylvester Turner (Houston, TX), Michael Hancock (Denver, CO), Shawyn Patterson-Howard (Baltimore, MD), Farrah Khan (Irvine, CA), Melissa Blaustein (San Jose, CA), Adrian Perkins (Newport News, VA), and George Burciaga (Barcelona, Spain). Logos for the U.S. Mayoral Roundtable, Smart City Expo World Congress, Tomorrow City, Fira Barcelona, and the US Roundtable are also present.

Building Our Future Cities Together

The U.S. Roundtable will host its flagship event, titled "Building Our Future Cities Together," on November 8th at the U.S. Pavilion. The session will cover a range of critical topics, from Artificial Intelligence in public safety to intelligent infrastructure and energy management at the street level. The event will feature inspiring U.S. mayors and will also host additional panels such as "Global Cities, Local Action: The Future of Infrastructure for Good" and "Local Government and Industry: Building Resilient Cities Together."

"The Smart City Expo World Congress is a pivotal moment for global collaboration. It's where technology and governance converge, enabling mayors to share transformative ideas that shape the future of our cities", said George Burciaga, Managing Partner of the US Roundtable, LLC.

The U.S. Roundtable is honored to be invited to meet with Mayor Jaume Collboni of the City of Barcelona, along with other global city leaders, for a VIP engagement with its U.S. delegation. Additionally, the Smart City Expo World Congress will delve into these incredible topics:

The Smart City Expo World Congress is a pivotal moment for global collaboration. It's where technology and governance converge, enabling city leaders to shape the future of our cities."

About the U.S. Roundtable, LLC

The U.S. Roundtable, LLC, is a collaboration-based platform focused on catalyzing digital transformation across cities while supporting our mayors. We are committed to enhancing engagement throughout the United States with a bipartisan approach that aims to accelerate and design the construction of our future cities.

About Elevate Cities, LLC

Elevate Cities, LLC, a subsidiary of the U.S. Roundtable, serves as our project-focused entity with a primary goal of advising mayors and cities on swiftly implementing innovative technologies to address critical human issues. This service is offered pro bono to city leaders, enabling us to reconsider conventional processes and services by leveraging the potential of futuristic governmental technologies.

Our Impact

Our innovative approach redefines urban living through the application of an intelligent framework, leveraging the LEAN methodology and an efficiency model that centers around the needs of people. The outcome is a tangible impact on citizen engagement, intelligent infrastructure, and advanced city services.
