Our new board members all have incredibly dynamic backstories including fundraising and development, governance, and artistic interests. How amazing it is to work with such passionate leaders!”

Marjorie Waldo, President & CEO, Arts Garage

According to President & CEO Marjorie Waldo, the addition of the new board members will help increase Arts Garage’s diverse programming while introducing additional insights to the area’s creative community.

“Arts Garage is constantly humbled by the volunteer efforts of our Board Members,” Waldo said. “Most recently, we have added four new members, all of them with incredibly dynamic backstories including fundraising and development, governance, and artistic interests. How amazing it is to work with such passionate leaders!”

- Robin Greene of Delray Beach is an infant/toddler development specialist who loves music, and even includes music in many of her sessions with children. Robin and her husband love giving back to the community, and support many local nonprofit organizations, including The Miracle League of Palm Beach County and Arts Garage.

- Chuck Halberg of Delray Beach has been active in the Delray Beach community since 1991, serving as a volunteer and supporting many nonprofits, including Delray Citizens for Delray Police, Achievement Center for Children & Families, The Miracle League, the Spady Cultural Heritage Museum, the Greater Delray Beach Chamber of Commerce, and many others.

- Elise Rubenstein of Delray Beach has always been a lover of the arts and is an avid supporter of venues in the communities she lives, including the Freeman Stage, a 4,000-person venue near her home in Delaware. She also serves as a board member at the Jewish Community Center of Greater Baltimore and has worked with The Walter's Art Museum, creating and running fundraising event for the museum.

- David Crespo of Delray Beach is a seasoned professional with experience in the fashion industry and brings his keen eye and expertise to round out the Board of Directors of the venue.

Current Arts Garage Board Members include:

- Louise Kornfeld
- Dick Lowenthal

Robin Greene

Chuck Halberg

- Jack Varsalona
- Susan Owens
- Mark Burns

Ex Officio Board Members include:
