Gina Maier Vincent created Significance, Satisfaction, and Sangria

to demystify fulfillment and deliver a value-rich, results-driven, and lasting transformative experience exceeding the demands of her high-achieving, successful clients who have enjoyed life's luxuries and are now ready for a life rich in meaning. Attendees find answers through an individually curated, private 2-hour session (in person or virtually), where they have the spotlight shining on their true talents and purpose in life. The clarity they receive moves them to instantly take bold and courageous action, causing an immediate and profound change in their way of living and experiencing the world.

"Today people want more out of life. After decades dedicated to attaining knowledge and degrees, and spending endless hours working toward recognition, they realize life's luxuries are lovely, but in the end, those titles lose relevance and the treasures collect dust; neither delivers fulfillment. Their focus shifts from professional to purpose-driven... a life rich in meaning," says Gina Maier Vincent of Exquisitely Aligned. "The problem is, there's a gap that needs to be addressed and filled before one can experience the significance they truly desire."

She notes that in order to chase success, most people:

- Pass up on passions to invest their time and energy to be promoted
- Sacrifice relationships with loved ones, in exchange for recognition
- Give up heartfelt desires and succumb to the promises of sensory marketing

Gina Maier Vincent | TV & Podcast Host | Transformation Expert celebrating 20 years of helping her high-achieving clients live a rich with meaning and purpose.

- Forego a healthy lifestyle (food, exercise, rest) because they believe they're invincible

I help people reclaim those missing pieces and live a life rich in meaning!
