The company has a long list of satisfied clients.

“Course of the Empire” original by Thomas Cole is part of the New York Historical Society's permanent collection in NYC but now a copy of this painting is in Bucks County PA on the wall of a serious CEO / art collector. The painting by Thomas Cole is from a series of five paintings created by the English-born American painter Thomas Cole between 1833 and 1836. It is notable in part for reflecting popular American sentiments of the times.

The office area has several historical paintings selected and customized to create a mini museum effect. When conducting business, the guests are treated to spectacular surroundings. This is not the first time Prestige Fine Art has created artwork for CEO and connoisseur of fine art. For over 30 years the company has continued to satisfy the taste of its collectors.
