

Huddle House Serves Up Free MVP Breakfast In Observance Of Veterans Day

ATLANTA, GA, USA, November 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Huddle House, known for bringing friends and family together, is paying tribute to those who are serving or have served in the military with a Free MVP Breakfast Platter this Veterans Day. On November 10, active duty, retired military, and veterans may visit any participating Huddle House to enjoy their MVP meal. Guests are required to present a proper military I.D. to receive their Free MVP.

"We are honored to be able to treat our active and retired military to a delicious, home-cooked meal, and to have the opportunity to show our gratitude for all they've done for us," said Jorge Pederzini, Vice President of Marketing for Huddle House. "These men and women are truly MVPs and deserve a hearty breakfast to match. Our MVP Breakfast Platter offers generous portions of fan favorites."

This delicious meal is a Huddle House favorite with numerous customizable platter combinations with delectable items including eggs, bacon, hashbrowns, grits, a waffle and a buttermilk pancake as the starting points for a great breakfast. The MVP Breakfast Platter may be customized with these offerings and enjoyed any time of day.

The free MVP Breakfast Platter for the military is valid for dine-in only this Veterans Day, November 10.

Huddle House favorites are available for dine-in or may be ordered online on the Huddle House website or mobile app for pickup, curbside, or delivery. Download the mobile app from Google Play or the App Store and start earning rewards instantly.
