

OP360's Inaugural Inter-Account Basketball Tournament in Cebu, Philippines: A Celebration of Sportsmanship

Inter-Account Basketball Tournament: Showcasing Sportsmanship, Teamwork, and Employee Engagement at OP360

CEBU CITY, THE PHILIPPINES, October 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sportsmanship and teamwork were the stars of the show at the championship event of the Inter-Account Basketball Tournament. The tournament was organized by OP360 (OfficePartners360), a globally recognized challenger BPO company, for its teams in Cebu, Philippines.

The OP360 Cebu Inter-Account Basketball Tournament, scheduled to take place on consecutive Saturdays starting in May 2023, served as the inaugural edition of a broader employee-driven intracompany sports initiative. This initiative aims to foster camaraderie among the workforce and promote holistic well-being. Thirteen teams, representing diverse accounts within OP360, ranging from Operations to Shared Services, exhibited their exceptional skills and remarkable teamwork throughout the tournament, creating an atmosphere of excitement and friendly competition.

Congrats to my team. Thanks to them, we trusted each other and became one on the court. We became champions!”

Joey Lucky Juntilla

The championship match, held on September 9 at the Cebu Port Authority Gymnasium, witnessed an exhilarating showdown between Teams Wildcatman and Polido. Both teams displayed remarkable teamwork over the course of four quarters, but it was Wildcatman who emerged as the champions with a final score of 78 to 77.

Reflecting on the hard-fought victory, Wildcatman captain Joey Lucky Juntilla, known for his exceptional leadership skills and unmatched determination, proudly accepted the highly esteemed title of season's Most Valuable Player. With dedication and countless hours of practice, Joey and his team mates' remarkable contributions to their success were undeniable. He expressed his gratitude to his exceptional team, consisting of talented individuals who consistently pushed the boundaries of their abilities in pursuit of excellence. Together, they overcame numerous challenges, displayed incredible teamwork, and showcased their unwavering passion for the game. The triumphant moment was a testament to their collective effort, reinforcing the bonds of camaraderie and leaving an indelible mark on the team's legacy.

In addition to the tournament, the event highlighted an All-Star Game, where the top players showcased their exceptional skills. Leading the awarding ceremony and even taking part in the ceremonial shot was Tim Boylan, the CEO and Founder. As a former competitive basketball player himself, Boylan's active involvement heightened the excitement of the day.

The tournament's success stands as a testament to OP360's unwavering dedication in fostering platforms that bring employees from various accounts together, cultivating a strong culture of teamwork within the company.
