Representatives from Richmond, Virginia; Charlotte, North Carolina; Wilmington, North Carolina; Columbia, South Carolina; Nashville, Tennessee; Chicago, Illinois; Atlanta, Georgia; Cincinnati, Ohio; and New Jersey will be attending the weekend retreat.

The event is designed to provide AMA chapters in attendance with valuable tools to help them advance their best practices and foster growth.

“As we approach the halfway mark of the chapter year, volunteer energy needs a boost. Regional Retreats help provide an opportunity for more intimate networking and sharing,” said AMA Triangle President Hayden Brooks Sherwood.

“AMA Triangle was selected to host this year's regional retreat due to our national reputation for strong leadership, high energy, and a dedicated membership base.”

The AMA Regional Retreat takes place on Saturday, November 4 at the AC Hotel in the North Hills area of Raleigh.
