Here are some of the choosing criteria (check the article for more):

- The proportion of music-related occupations
- Average annual income for guitar players
- One-bedroom median rental price
- Cost of living index
- Number of small music venues per capita
- Number of musicians per capita
- Approximate number of stores that sell guitars

These criteria helped narrow choices down to the top 7. Each one of these cities is worth visiting (or even relocating) for guitar and music enthusiasts.

One of the featured cities has affordable one-bedroom median rental prices (as low as $900), but it offers excellent opportunities for guitar players based on "Small venues per capita". This city ranked number #3 on the list.
