The incident, which occurred in the presence of the client's family and was documented by a bystander's dash camera, resulted in substantial damage to the vehicle and injuries to the client. After the collision, the client lost consciousness and required emergency transportation to Jersey Shore University Medical Center in Neptune, New Jersey. There, she underwent complex facial repair procedures for the lacerations sustained.

“

Drivers who fail to obey traffic signals endanger the public. What should have been a normal day for the client turned into a life-altering event, leaving her with a scar as a permanent reminder.”
