that runs on Amazon Web Services (AWS). AWS consumers can now purchase and access AccuKnox Cloud Security Posture Management (CSPM), AccuKnox Cloud Workload Protection Platform (CWPP), and AccuKnox Cloud Native Application Protection Platform (CNAPP) directly in the AWS Marketplace. AccuKnox's Zero Trust CNAPP delivers "Build to Runtime" Security and has the following unique differentiators:

 Agentless CSPM
 CWPP, powered by industry-standard telemetry engines like Extended Berkeley Packet Filter (eBPF) and Linux Security Module (LSM) Advanced capabilities like:
o Run-time security capability
o Inline remediation (as opposed to post-attack mitigation) o Network and application hardening, micro-segmentation, firewalling o DevSecOps integration
o Continuous compliance, drift detection o Support for public and private cloud security and air-gapped installation o Support for modern (Kubernetes) and legacy (virtual machine) workloads.
o Support for Cloud, IoT/Edge, and 5G workloads

"We are very pleased to partner with a Modern, Cloud Native, Zero Trust CNAPP innovator like AccuKnox. Zero Trust security is a commitment we have to our customers. AccuKnox's leading product combined with their successful track record of partnering with their customers forms the foundation for this objective.
