The partnership aims to strengthen community bonds and elevate local residents through education and nourishment.

Known for its authentic Jiangsu & Zhejiang cuisine, particularly its "xiao long bao," or soup dumplings, the restaurant serves as a hub where culture, tradition, and community converge.

"Our restaurant is not just a place to grab a meal; it's a place where culture, tradition, and community come together," said Tiger Meng, a representative from Nan Xiang Xiao Long Bao. "We're honored to work with AAFE on initiatives that empower the very community that has embraced us since our humble beginnings as a mom-and-pop store in Flushing."

Starting on November 28, 2023, Nan Xiang Xiao Long Bao will support AAFE's 8-week Digital Literacy Program, primarily aimed at adult learners who are also parents. These evening classes will be held at AAFE's Flushing office, located just a few blocks from the restaurant. By offering meals to both the program participants and their children, Nan Xiang Xiao Long Bao aims to eliminate the meal preparation and childcare obstacles that often prevent these families from accessing educational opportunities.

This collaboration is a natural extension of both organizations' commitment to community empowerment and education. As Nan Xiang Xiao Long Bao prepares to expand its footprint to additional locations, its core focus on community engagement remains steadfast.
