

WorldatWork launches Total Rewards'23, India Edition — an innovative HR learning and networking event in India

With a proven track record of providing HR professionals with strategy-focused education & networking opportunity in the US, the event debuted in India in 2023

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, November 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- WorldatWork's Total Rewards Conference is a premier learning event for ambitious and curious Total Rewards, Compensation & Benefits professionals.

This annual event brought together speakers and programs that delivered actionable, measurable solutions in a fun and dynamic setting. CHROs, senior HR and Total Rewards leaders were provided with plenty of opportunities to connect with peers and be part of a larger movement to transform how talent is rewarded in organizations in India. The half-day event in Pune, with a business-centric approach, delivered tangible ideas along with inspiration to shape up organizations' Total Rewards strategies. The event was a combination of panel discussions and workshops, hosted by leading industry subject matter experts.

Says Sheetal Raut, Managing Director, WorldatWork India: "Drawing from our rich legacy of knowledge of Total Rewards and mission to build better workplaces, WorldatWork India is committed to bring India's TR community together and provide them with the most forward-looking industry insights to elevate their Total Rewards strategy that delivers superior employee experience and organizational performance. We are glad to see the community benefit from this event and in the years to come."

"With the launch of Total Rewards'23 India Edition, we've taken a crucial step toward our goal of building a more global and diverse community through our association, as well as providing that growing network with the insights, knowledge, and peer engagement that's unique to our deep experience in the areas of total rewards: compensation, benefits, well-being, recognition, and career succession. People across the world are shaping the future of work and Total Rewards. We look forward to creating more opportunities for networking and knowledge sharing for all TR professionals in India." — Scott Cawood, CEO, WorldatWork.
