

CAMS' Kristin Hoffman Earns CMCA® Designation

Kristin Hoffman, a senior community manager in CAMS Raleigh, NC, region has earned her Certified Manager of Community Associations designation.

RALEIGH, NC, UNITED STATES, November 2, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CAMS \(Community Association Management Services\) is thrilled to announce that Kristin Hoffman earned her Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA®) designation. Hoffman has 12 years of experience in the community management industry and has been with CAMS since 2022.

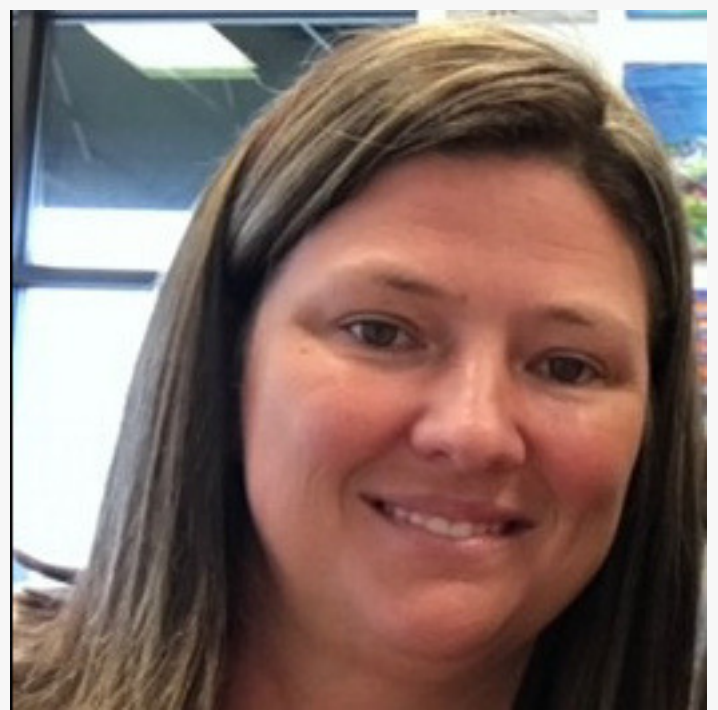

Throughout her career, Kristin has taken on various roles, including assistant community manager, community manager, and senior community manager, each contributing to her broad understanding of community association management.

When asked about her recent accomplishments, Hoffman expressed enthusiasm and dedication to her role.

"After 12 years in the HOA industry, it feels good to have earned my CMCA®," said Hoffman. "I'm excited to share with my clients that I've earned the CMCA® so they can continue to trust that I have the experience and knowledge to meet their needs."

Senior VP of Association Management, Ben Rhodes, CMCA®, AMS®, PCAM®, is thrilled to see Hoffman pursuing her industry credentials.

"We are excited for Kristen to earn her CMCA®, said Rhodes. "This shows her continued desire to elevate her knowledge about our industry by achieving this designation."
