/EINPresswire.com/ -- Janet Walker, publisher, and founder of Haute-Lifestyle.com, is celebrating the success of her original riveting crime drama “The Wednesday Killer” which has been nominated for Best Feature Screenplay of The Year - 2023 by New York Film Awards capping a season of unprecedented achievement for her second screenplay.

Ms. Walker said of the surprising announcement, “I was shocked and humbled that “The Wednesday Killer” was nominated and included as one of the top five screenplays of the year. I certainly didn’t expect it.”

“One of the most attractive qualities of the script is the immediate sense of unease the writer introduces in showing [the killer] as a very wealthy, well-liked, and charming man before revealing his homicidal habits,” said a reviewer from Portland Screenplay Awards.

The captivating murder mystery has been designated an award winner by the majority of film festivals that have judged the intense and gripping thriller and continues to build interest as Ms. Walker seeks a producer and development opportunities.
