Competing against 6,500 submissions from around the globe, ArtVersion’s design for the Legat Architects website stood out in three significant categories: Best User Experience, Business-to-Business, and Branding, showcasing the agency’s prowess in delivering digital excellence.

The comprehensive redesign of Legat’s online platform resulted in a vibrant and dynamic aesthetic, enhanced by a fluid and intuitive user experience, and bolstered by a commitment to accessibility and usability. The ArtVersion team also modernized Legat’s design language, for a cohesive and unified UI/UX experience and branding initiatives. This transformation was achieved through a close collaboration between ArtVersion's expert design and development teams and client input in a seamless, iterative process. The outcome was a website that authentically represents Legat's ethos, mission, and portfolio of work.

Securing the litany of awards was a monumental achievement, made all the more significant by the high volume of other high-caliber submissions and the extensive range of categories covered. The MUSE Awards serve as a competitive platform that recognizes excellence across diverse fields and industries, where only the most innovative contenders earn the distinguished honor of recognition. ArtVersion is proud to be among the esteemed honorees, continuing to advance the future of digital design.
