This partnership comes at an opportune time for the label as their premiere artist, "The Group Fire", continue to make headway in the Gospel industry. The quartet has already amassed several Stellar Award nominations, national radio airplay, and seem to be on the brink of global success amidst their label's exciting distribution partnership. JRNE's first offering under the new venture will feature "The Group Fire's" first Christmas release entitled "The Gift", available everywhere on November 3rd.

This is paramount for Jet to partner with such a major company in the music and entertainment industry.”

Steve Cooper

Jet Records was founded and is owned by Bishop T. Cooper. The label is committed to the development of artists that are passionate about kingdom building. With the assistance of Songwriter & Producer Steve Cooper, Jet has remained relevant with great gospel music. As a result of discovering talented artists with a desire to spread the message of God through song, Jet Records North-East continues to hone in on talent and assist in perfecting praise.
