LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, November 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prestige Fine Art artists recreate artwork for church in North Dakota from the Sistine Chapel by Raphael.

This painting with hundreds of images, which is a wall fresco, was created for the church 4 feet by 6 feet wide. This was not the first-time artwork has been painted by Prestige artists for the church. Over the last 5 years the church has commissioned over 15 paintings for their art collection which parishioners can enjoy while attending mass.

Prestige Fine Art Painting "Disputation of The Holy Sacrament" by Raphael

I have received the beautiful painting of the Virgin and Angels which I ordered from you, I cannot express how pleased I am with the result. It fits perfectly much better than I anticipated.”

Father Theodosius

All the masterpiece painting's where selected from art books and then numerous references are supplied to artist to ensure the paintings skillfully capture the spirit and essence of the original. The research department at Prestige are experts at helping clients when searching for the choices the church needed.

In many cases PFA artist can go directly into the museum where the original painting is on display and copy the work of art.

The most recent painting “Disputation of The Holy Sacrament” by old Italian master Raphaël is really is the pinnacle of what an PFA artist can offer to clients. The paintings are created by artist the same as the original work of art.

In the past the company has also created some obscure works one being "Saint Leo Magnus" (Pope) by Francisco de Herrera el Mozo which is located in the Prado Museum , Madrid Spain.
