/EINPresswire.com/ -- Ubora Coffee, a passionate coffee company founded on a deep love for coffee and a vision to create a positive societal impact, is excited to introduce its mission to revolutionize the coffee industry. Ubora, meaning "excellence" in Swahili, pays homage to Africa, where coffee was first discovered and is dedicated to delivering the finest coffee beans at their peak of roasted perfection.

Ubora Coffee

Ubora Coffee is committed to providing an espresso bar experience that prioritizes tradition, community, collaboration, responsibility, and excellence. In an environment designed to stimulate meaningful conversations and inspire ideas, coffee enthusiasts can savor a diverse selection of specialty coffees, all meticulously roasted in-house and sourced responsibly through fair trade partnerships with coffee farmers and producers worldwide.

Each coffee offered by Ubora has a unique narrative, such as the Peru Cajamarca from the Aprocassi cooperative, which not only delivers exceptional flavor but also supports social and environmental initiatives, enhancing the livelihoods of farmers while promoting environmental sustainability.

Ubora Coffee takes pride in educating coffee lovers about the distinct characteristics of their favorite beverages. For example, while Latte and Cappuccino may seem similar, they have distinct compositions that set them apart.

The cappuccino, closely intertwined with the Italian espresso tradition, consists of a 6-ounce serving evenly divided into thirds: 1/3 espresso, 1/3 steamed milk, and 1/3 wet foamed milk. It offers a rich, airy taste with low acidity, essentially a robust coffee with a delightful foam topping.

In contrast, the latte, derived from the Italian phrase for "milk coffee," boasts a creamy, velvety texture and captivating foam art. Comprising 1-2 espresso shots and 5-6 ounces of steamed milk, it provides a delightful coffee experience with a thin layer of foam. Ubora offers lattes in 12 and 16-ounce sizes, each containing 2-3 espresso shots, resulting in a distinct flavor and texture.

Ubora Coffee invites coffee enthusiasts to explore and appreciate the unique qualities of these classic beverages.

The company also offers a Wholesale Program for entrepreneurs looking to establish their coffee shops or espresso bars, complete with setup guidance and barista training by SCA-certified professionals. Additionally, Ubora provides options for white-label and custom coffee blends (Minimum Quantities Required), enabling businesses to create a personalized coffee experience for their clientele.
