Each author will have a book gifted to attendees, plus authors Kelly Anne Manuel and Korynn Newville will attend in person and sign copies of their books. They'll have opportunities to chat about their books with attendees, sharing what makes each unique.

Literature has always been a vital part of culture and storytelling, and we are delighted to feature these talented authors at our gifting event.”

DPA*

Kelly Anne Manuel is a testament to resilience and transformation after turning a life-altering tragedy into a flourishing career in children's literature. Her powerful and positive narratives provide solace and encouragement to young readers. “The Catcher Dream” is her gift to the attendees, a token of hope and strength. Kelly will be present at the event, ready to share her story and sign books.

Korynn Newville is an architectural designer turned avant-garde author who brings her artistic brilliance to the forefront with “Indiscernible Elements: Calcium”. This unique compilation of intricate illustrations, poignant poetry, and thoughtful dialogue delves deep into environmental issues and the impact of our current lifestyles on future generations. Korynn will also be at the event, engaging with guests and autographing her work.

William Stevenson, a retired award-winning accountant turned children's book author, and a loving PopPop, shares his imaginative and educational journey through history in "Ricky's Dream Trip to the Ancient Worlds of Egypt, Greece, and Rome". Although William won't be present in person, his gift of knowledge and adventure will be gifted to attendees in the Books That Make You gift bags.

Nathalie Dubois, the head of DPA and organizer of the gifting suite, says, "Literature has always been a vital part of culture and storytelling, and we are delighted to feature these talented authors at our gifting event. Having Black Château and their authors with us aligns perfectly with our vision of presenting innovative and meaningful gifts to our guests."

Desireé Duffy, the Founder of Black Château, along with Dave Duffy, Head of Operations, will be on hand to facilitate the gifting. This is not the first time the bookish brands have teamed up with DPA for author signings and giftings. The week of the Oscars last year was a similar VIP gifting party attended by Black Château authors.

Desireé Duffy says, "We adore Nathalie and admire all she does for the entertainment world. Teaming up with her to offer our authors this special one-of-a-kind opportunity is magical. The DPA team is always top-notch. Professional, on top of their game, prestigious and a true leader in their realm, I love everything about DPA and how they present their gifting lounges, which are the most respected in the industry, to both the guests and brands."
