

Las Cazuelas, Highland Park's Culinary Watering Hole, Celebrates Over 30 Years with National Pupusas Day Giveaway

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, November 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Las Cazuelas, the long-standing beacon of Salvadoran cuisine in Highland Park, announces a special giveaway in celebration of National Pupusas Day and over three decades of serving the community. On Sunday, November 12th, from 6 PM to 8 PM, guests are invited to commemorate these milestones with free pupusas, honoring both the traditional Salvadoran dish and the restaurant's enduring presence in the neighborhood.

Carlos Lopez, the proud owner of Las Cazuelas, regards the restaurant as the “Highland Park watering hole,” a place where generations have gathered to savor the flavors of El Salvador. "We've been a part of the community's fabric for over 30 years, and we're here to stay," said Lopez. "In the face of change and gentrification, we stand strong, celebrating our heritage and the loyalty of our customers."

Guests will be treated to authentic pupusas, handcrafted with love and served with the traditional curtido and salsa.”
