Extreme Entrepreneurs Steve Jobs and Jesus Christ

By drawing connections between the technological visionary Steve Jobs and the spiritual guide Jesus Christ, author Tracy Emerick provides a thought-provoking examination of their contributions. In this analysis, Emerick underscores their exceptional capacities to alter the trajectory of history and mold the very essence of our existence.

"The title of the book seemed very interesting to me, I would never have thought of making a comparison between Steve Jobs and Jesus Christ, so I must admit that I was very curious to see how the author approached and focused this book. First of all, I was researching the author himself, and I realized that he has a broad background and experience in marketing and business in general, in addition to having experience in teaching and an extensive curriculum, which gave me a lot of confidence in this regard. The book analyzes the life of both, Jobs and Jesus Christ, presenting very relevant and contrasted information, with convincing arguments, which invite a deep analysis and reflection while making a comparison between the two, and in this sense, you realize how they had an extreme influence on their respective society, each in their own way, and that I found very interesting.” Albert, a reader says.

No matter what background or interests, whether deeply passionate about technology, on a spiritual quest for knowledge, or simply curious about the profound effects individuals can have on society, “Extreme Entrepreneurs: Steve Jobs and Jesus Christ” is poised to offer an exceptionally compelling reading experience.
