This 5 acre, 180-year-old, historic factory loft campus just 12 miles from NYC is a hand-crafted venue that transcends the ordinary, empowering couples to curate bespoke weddings with a dedicated creative team. Amidst a sea of uniform celebrations, Art Factory Studios shines as the beacon of authenticity and boundless imagination.

Unveiling the Unbelievable: 24 Hours of Unmatched Splendor

Donata and David Garsia, the owners of the Art Factory, have created a space that allows brides to step into a world where their wedding venue is theirs for a full day, with no hidden costs or time constraints. Art Factory Studios redefines affordability and access, not only in New Jersey but globally, offering an all-inclusive experience that exceeds expectations.

Innovation Defined in Creative Events and Weddings

Embedded in a love of art and artistry, Donata and David created this groundbreaking concept of using space as art and art as space, the Art Factory aims to invoke creativity, autonomy and a communal environment. This is precisely the reason why Steven Spielberg, chose the Art Factory as a space for his reboot of the cinematic film, West Side Story. “A true cinematic tapestry” has been used to describe the Art Factory Studios as a living testament to history, with raw, unpolished corners that exude the charm of a bygone era. Customers become "members" of the Art Factory family and Donata and David encourage their members to embrace the allure of a cinematic backdrop as they weave their narratives within the storied walls, celebrating the beauty of a time-honored legacy.

Employing dozens from all over the State of New Jersey, The Art Factory Studios is centered in community elevation and development. Incubating dozens of small businesses and creating a space to sustain, support and grow entrepreneurs is at the core of what powers the Art Factory to ensure remarkable events and weddings.
