Brian Leslie

As a nationally recognized and qualified expert in State, Federal, and Military courts throughout the United States, Leslie has extensive experience dealing with wrongfully convicted individuals and their families. Leslie has witnessed firsthand the alarming frequency at which innocent individuals are tragically misidentified by witnesses. Moreover, he highlights how accusations made by alleged victims often receive insufficient investigation from law enforcement agencies. Disturbingly, exculpatory evidence that could potentially favor the defendant is rarely given proper attention or follow-up. In an effort to shed light on these dark tragedies endured by families when their loved ones are wrongfully convicted, Leslie believes that his upcoming podcast will provide a unique perspective into this distressing reality of our justice system.
