

Xiao-I Hua Zang Ecosystem Empowers Businesses to Achieve Commercialization with the Launch of Healing Smart Speaker

SHANGHAI, CHINA, November 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Xiao-I Corporation (NASDAQ: AIXI) ("Xiao-I" or the "Company"), a leading cognitive artificial intelligence ("AI") enterprise in China, is proud to announce the launch of the Hua Zang Psychological Healing Smart Speaker (the "Healing Smart Speaker"), an innovative product designed to revolutionize the field of digital health.

Designed to enhance the well-being and mental health of users, the Healing Smart Speaker leverages Xiao-I's Hua Zang Universal LLM Ecosystem to interact with users, focusing on individuals who are experiencing low moods, negative thoughts, psychological disorders, or depression. Additionally, the Healing Smart Speaker can administer psychological assessment questionnaires for symptom self-evaluation, offering guidance and analysis based on the assessment results. This approach aids users in gaining a better understanding of their mental state while providing the necessary support and recommendations.

The Healing Smart Speaker's sleep monitoring functionality offers comprehensive sleep data recording and recommends personalized sleep-inducing music, meditation, and related services based on this data. Powered by Hua Zang Universal LLM, the Healing Smart Speaker tailors pre-sleep and sleep adjustment plans for those who have insomnia or are experiencing poor sleep quality. These personalized services aim to provide the most effective assistance to users in improving their sleep quality based on their specific circumstances.

Furthermore, the Healing Smart Speaker continuously updates adjustment plans in real-time based on users' accumulated sleep data and records changes in sleep patterns. This immediate feedback and adaptation enable users to stay informed about their sleep status and receive targeted recommendations for improvement.

By combining psychological health and sleep monitoring, the Healing Smart Speaker offers users a holistic and precise service, helping them establish healthy mental and sleep habits, with a goal of ultimately enhancing both their physical and psychological quality of life.

This product showcases the continuous enhancement of digital health industry services through the application of Hua Zang Universal LLM. With over 20 years of experience, Xiao-I not only leads in cognitive intelligence technology and the AI industry but also pioneers innovative strategies for customizing and commercializing large language models in the business landscape.

On October 26, 2023, Xiao-I launched the Hua Zang Universal LLM Ecosystem, which is designed to realize the achievements implementation and commercialization of Hua Zang Universal LLM, and to cater to a wide range of industries, including finance, public services, healthcare, construction, energy, telecommunications, education, e-commerce, logistics, cultural tourism, media, 3C manufacturing, automotive, pharmaceuticals, energy, law, retail, and other various sectors.

The Hua Zang Smart Speaker is a testament to the effectiveness and versatility of Hua Zang Universal LLM. For businesses looking to harness the power of advanced AI solutions, we believe Xiao-I's Hua Zang Universal LLM Ecosystem offers a great opportunity to embrace the future and create customized, scalable solutions for their specific needs.
