For over 40 years I've seen little change in the way that our children are educated in the school system when it's related to credit and financial affairs now's the time to make that change.”

Dan Kost

The Money Smarts game, designed to be a holistic and immersive financial education experience, is centered around the concept of overcoming financial pitfalls and challenges that players may encounter on their financial journey. By offering a gamified approach to financial education, Money Smarts LLC aims to make learning about finance fun, engaging, and accessible to a wide range of age groups.

Key Features of the Money Smarts Game:

- Comprehensive Financial Education: The game covers the entire spectrum of financial topics, including home purchases, insurance, investments, credit cards, and credit repair.
- Realistic Financial Transactions: Players will have the opportunity to simulate real-life financial transactions within the virtual game, such as opening accounts, obtaining credit cards, and monitoring their credit reports.
- AI Technology: The game is powered by cutting-edge AI technology, which adapts to each player's progress and provides personalized feedback and guidance.

Dan Kost, the author of the first book about credit repair, established Money Smarts LLC with the goal of improving financial literacy and empowerment among individuals of all ages. He believes that this innovative game will revolutionize the way people learn about personal finance, providing them with the knowledge and skills necessary to make informed financial decisions throughout their lives.

Dan Kost founder of Dakdan Worldwide

"Money Smarts is thrilled to introduce the Money Smarts game to the world, and we believe it will be a game-changer in the realm of financial education," said Dan Kost, founder of Money Smarts LLC. "Our vision is to equip individuals with the tools and knowledge they need to navigate the complexities of the financial world successfully. This game is a significant step toward achieving that vision."
