Marcia S. Wagner, Founder and Managing Director

Ms. Matloff is an experienced litigator in disputes involving ERISA and employee benefits as well as employment, insurance, non-profit organizations, complex torts, nursing homes, and consumer and home improvement products liability. Her ERISA litigation experience includes ERISA preemption issues, benefit claims, plan benefit calculation matters, as well as breach of fiduciary duty claims. Ms.

Matloff has also represented clients in litigation involving wrongful termination and retaliation claims under the Family and Medical Leave Act, unpaid wages, and government contractor's personnel files.

Ms. Matloff regularly advises clients, including both for-profit and non-profit organizations, on a variety of employment law matters. She provides counsel to employers regarding employment-related policies and agreements, including non-competition and non-solicitation agreements, severance agreements, and employee handbooks. Ms. Matloff advises non-profit organizations on a variety of legal matters including director's and officer's liability, human resources and personnel decisions, employment practices, contracts, First Amendment issues, collections, and insurance.

Ms. Matloff is distinguished by Best Lawyers® in the area of Litigation – Labor and Employment, is recognized by Super Lawyers in the area of General Litigation, and was included in Boston

Magazine's "Top Lawyers" for non-profits for 2022. She received her J.D. from Suffolk University Law School, magna cum laude, and her B.A. from The University of Pennsylvania, magna cum laude. Ms. Matloff also uses her legal skills to support her community, serving on the Executive Committee and Board of Overseers of The Jewish Journal, a newspaper based on the North Shore of Massachusetts. Prior to joining The Wagner Law Group, Ms. Matloff was a partner in a Boston law firm.

The Wagner Law Group
