Each year, one project's commitment to Design-Build Done Right® rises above the others to receive DBIA's Project of the Year. This project excels in teaming, design and process -- and far exceeds the basic requirements of DBIA awards submissions. The Project of the Year is chosen by a jury of industry professionals from submissions across ten categories. Learn more about the 2023 DBIA Award recipients, including Merit Award and Excellence Award winners in each category on DBIA's Awards page.
