EINPresswire.com/ -- The Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands donated a tulip shaped wind/solar off-grid Charging Station from Flower Turbines to ADA University in Azerbaijan.

This wind turbine, equipped with solar panels, garnered attention within the community due to its captivating and unique design which enable wind and sun energy to be stored in a battery and provide the students with electricity for charging small electronic devices and e-bikes. For more information, visit <https://www.flowerturbines.com/chargingstations>

This contribution promotes sustainable energy use among the younger generation in Azerbaijan, it is also in alignment with the Netherlands' commitment to prioritizing sustainability.

The Charging Station's presence has been widely covered in the national
