SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, November 14, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Celebration Wellness is excited to announce its partnership with the NFL Retired Players Congress in efforts to treat current and retired athletes. Many athletes suffer from long-term discomfort and health conditions due to a career of training and competing at a high level. Celebration Wellness Center will provide athletes with the benefits of stem cell research and treatment in hopes of easing the pain endured during aggressive sport performance.

Professional athletes take part in intense workout programs, training and competitions every year that can result in severe muscle and orthopedic discomfort during their careers and after they have retired. The stem cell therapy services offered by Celebration Wellness Center help to repair and regenerate damaged tissue, reduce inflammation and improve overall health by working closely with scientific experts from around the world.

“Our team at Celebration Wellness is beyond blessed to have the opportunity to work with former and current NFL Players that suffer from ongoing pain caused from competition at high levels,” said Tim Kopatich, Chief Executive Officer of Celebration. “It is our mission to provide care for these athletes, while showing others the benefit stem cell treatment holds.”

Celebration Wellness, a division of San Diego, California-based Celebration Life Sciences, Inc., offers one-on-one stem cell-based therapies to patients from around the world at its facility in Escazu. Stem cell treatments will be available for patients suffering from: various autoimmune diseases, diabetes, Parkinson’s disease, cardiovascular illnesses, neuropathy, osteoarthritis, and
