New York Moves Magazine is a leader in championing women unafraid to ask hard questions. Taking on social, political, and global topics to show how women are shaping the world we live in today, the magazine offers a provocative, often polemic view of society; an askance look at the world we live in. The upcoming annual celebration is one of many impressive highlights of the magazine's commitment to celebrating leading women, and will be hosted this year by lifelong public servant, Huma Abedin, who served as deputy chief of staff to former U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton. Abedin also served as vice chair of Hillary for America in 2016, resulting in the first woman elected nominee of a major political party, and is a New York Times Bestselling Author and MSNBC contributor.

Each year the Moves Power Women Awards Gala & Dinner sees an unparalleled guest list, this year's 20th Anniversary celebration proving to be no less impressive or monumental. The red carpet will be walked by the likes of distinguished, whimsical fashion designer, Betsy Johnson; multi-platinum album singer-songwriter, Pat Benetar; Desperate Housewives veteran, actress, and activist, Felicity Huffman; and many, many more celebrated thespians, women in business, ambassadors and politicians, philanthropists, and so on. The evening's presenters are a similarly accomplished array of women across industry, including but not limited to: Bonnie Bernstein, Maria Elena Salinas, Theresa Rodriguez, Hazel Sanchez, Paige Hemmis, S.E. Cupp, Alexis Glick, Laura Segall, Maya Wiley, Caryl Stern, and Mindy Grossman. Entertainment will include: comedian Karen Morgan, poet Aija Mayrock, international concert pianist Elaine Kwon, opera star Anya Bulchandani, critically acclaimed musician Jonah Hill, performer-philanthropist duo, brothers Bradley and Bowie Bundlie of First Day of School, and singer/songwriter Alyson Michal.

"We want to wow our guests with an amazing event that promises to be a really memorable evening. As we continue our commitment to advancing gender equality and women's empowerment, we look forward to another 20 years of progress towards a fairer and more equitable world," says New York Moves Magazine publisher and CEO, Moonah Ellison. With an evening practically overflowing with talent, prestige, distinct, and accomplishment, the celebration is sure to achieve intended remarkability.

The gala will celebrate another legendary list of some two dozen honorees, which will similarly include women from a vast array of curricular backgrounds. From Fortune 500 company executives to chief correspondents and counsels in the public sector, New York Moves

Felicity Huffman and daughter Georgia Grace Macy.

Magazine's hand-picked and -curated list of venerable, paramount women is one-of-a-kind– only rivaling that of those who have graced their past Power issues, famed veterans including Kerry Washington, Susan Sarandon, Jodi Picoult, Lori Greiner, Gayle King, Hoda Kotb, and many more.
