

Truth and Liberty Coalition Creates Colorado Voter Guides

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, November 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Truth and Liberty Coalition created nonpartisan voter guides for Colorado's 2023 important school board elections.

“Conservative Christian voters needed the resources before voting to learn where school board candidates stood on important issues,” said Richard Harris, Truth & Liberty Coalition’s executive director.

“Our goal was to help believers in Christ make informed decisions as they seek to vote according to biblical values,” Harris said.

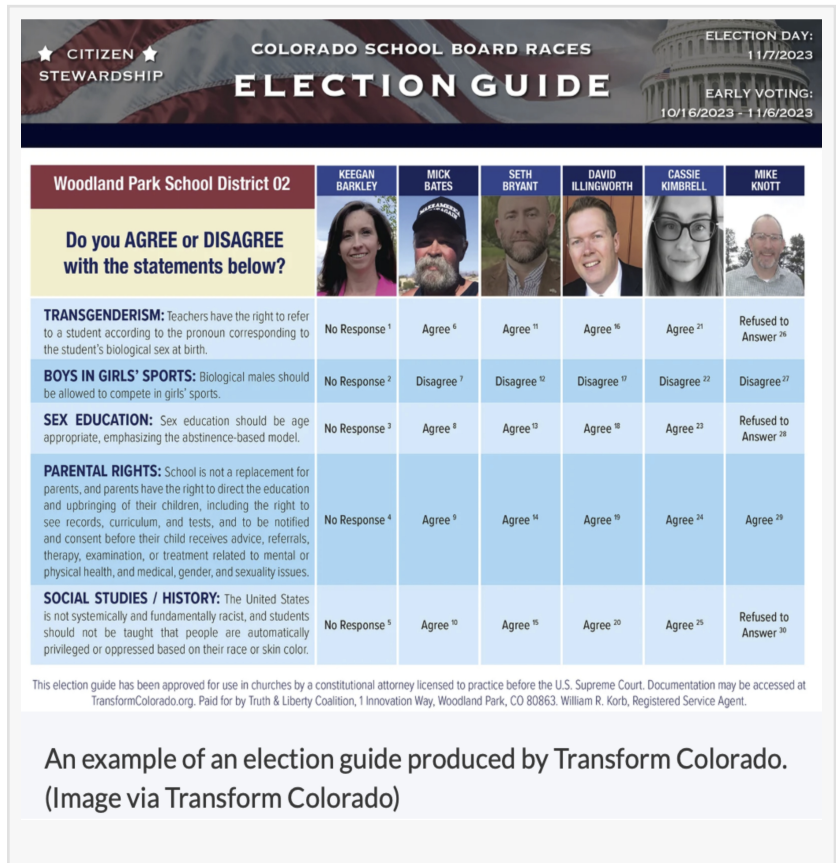

Truth & Liberty Coalition surveyed 163 candidates in 30 districts and printed nearly 388,000 guides in English and Spanish. The guides were distributed in 1551 churches across those districts.

This year’s school board elections in Colorado were more important than ever. “Instead of just math and science, students are being indoctrinated with harmful leftist ideology,” Harris said.

“We know Christians are deeply concerned about what is happening in our schools,” Harris said. “We wanted to provide them with a tool to help them decide how to express their views consistent with biblical standards.”

“We are still reviewing turnout data, but we are very pleased that our guides were an important resource that improved voter participation quantity and quality,” Harris said.

In addition to voter guides, Christian voters could access many other informative and helpful
