Dupont Investigations Audio Drama by Nocturne Hall

Co-creators and showrunners Marc Benjamin Langston and Bryce Bowyn, honored as FY '24 DC Arts and Humanities Fellows for their exceptional contributions to fiction and music, have meticulously crafted "Dupont Investigations" to deliver an unparalleled, immersive experience.

Crafting the mysterious world of Dupont Investigations was an exhilarating journey into the shadows of the 1930s, where secrets and suspense dance in the moonlight.”

Marc Benjamin Langston, Co-Creator, Writer

In the heart of 1936 Washington, DC, "The Scourge from Carthage" follows the Dupont Investigations team as they delve into the perplexing death of a tobacco heir. Blurring the lines between reality and the supernatural, the narrative unfolds with ancient secrets and a rich soundscape that will capture audiences from all walks of life.
