The Strength of the Nation

In "The Strength of the Nation," it is mentioned that to regain the greatness of one's nation; it is necessary to retrace the steps of the old prophets and follow their mindset. The book dictates that the brilliance of discovery, wisdom, knowledge, and understanding comes from the spiritual power above. America needs to be great and strong not only for its citizens but also for the sake of all nations in the world. America is the beacon of hope for humanity and the solution to prosperity and harmony.

Luisa Mirella Plancher graduated with a degree in Political Science and pursued a career in Social Work. Plancher is a former Italian school teacher who moved to the USA when she married her American husband. Plancher started writing in 1980 and decided to expand the concept of making America great when former president Trump appeared on the political scene.
