This recognition is bestowed upon only highly distinguished individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in their careers and exemplary leadership within their communities.”

2023 Jagils Lifetime Achievement Award

The award ceremony, held at the beautifully appointed Hilton Mark Center in Alexandria, Virginia, took place at the end of the evening. Dr. Samuel Jacobs-Abbey, PhD, MBA, GCPP, Founder and Executive Director of Jagils, presented the award to Isabelle Vladoiu. Earlier, she delivered an inspiring keynote speech to an enthusiastic crowd of nearly 100 nonprofit leaders, politicians, and business owners. Ms. Vladoiu spoke again to express her gratitude and emotions upon receiving the award. The award reads, “This recognition is bestowed upon only highly distinguished individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in their careers and exemplary leadership within their communities.”

The 2023 Jagils Lifetime Achievement Award has been previously awarded to notable individuals such as Dr. Nina L Meyerhof, President of Children of the Earth, Inc., Timothy Bowles, International Director of Youth for Human Rights International, H.E Jewel Howard-Taylor, Vice President of Liberia, and Cashenna A. Cross, Mayor of the City of Glenarden, Maryland.

An inspiring leader, she guided the US Institute of Diplomacy and Human Rights in certifying over 9,000 human rights and diplomatic consultants, advancing the cause of inclusion and equal opportunities for all. She has also been a prominent voice in the fight for better education and diversity.

Additionally, with over a decade of experience, she has trained more than 15,000 professionals in diplomacy and protocol, including policymakers, government officials, and organization leaders. Isabelle Vladioiu is also an accomplished author, having penned the best-selling books "Business Etiquette Secrets" and "How to Become a Human Rights Professional."

Isabelle Vladioiu’s legendary work ethic and strong commitment to human rights education have not gone unnoticed. Ms. Vladioiu’s new plaque will join her other awards, including recognition from two U.S. Presidents, the "Eleanor Roosevelt" Medal of Merit, and countless letters of appreciation from governors, U.S. Senators, and Representatives, local legislators, and various non-governmental organizations, all commending her exceptional work. Isabelle Vladioiu's dedication to promoting diplomacy, spreading knowledge of universal human rights, and fostering inclusive societies serves as an inspiration to new human rights professionals. It sets a shining example for generations to come.
